THREE U. S. SENATORS PLAN TO BE ON HILL

Getman, '16, Announces Y. M. C. A.'s Slate for the Winter Lecture Course in Silliman Hall.

A DOZEN GOOD SPEAKERS.

Schedule Includes Lecturers on All Subjects, Thanks to Help from Utica Y. M. C. A.

Under the direction of Getman, '16, the list of Y. M. C. A. speakers has assumed a definite form. Twelve men have been secured, and all are practically certain to come to the Hill. Among these are three United States Senators, a scientist, and men prominent in religious work. All the speakers rank high in their line, and the course should be unusually good.

The first two lecturers addressed the College last Wednesday and Sunday respectively. They were Messrs Laidler and Groner. The next speaker will be Dr. Furnajeff, who appears on November 27th. Dr. Furnajeff is a graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary and has served as voluntary chaplain in the Bulgarian Army.

U. S. Senator Crawford.

December second, Mr. Fenno, a prominent Y. M. C. A. worker, will be here. He has spoken on the Hill before on one of his periodical lecture tours. On the thirteenth, the Honorable Coe I. Crawford, U. S. Senator from South Dakota appears in the chapel. The address will be on some current topic. The next lecture, by Dr. Krebbs, the noted scientist of Philadelphia, will be along scientific lines. Wherever Dr. Krebbs has been previously, he has drawn immense crowds.

Altho he has not yet been secured with absolute certainty, it is almost certain that he Hon. Miles Poindexter. U. S. Senator from Washington will be on the program for January 10. He will speak that afternoon in Utica, and can without doubt be secured for the evening.

Ted Mercer to Speak.

After that comes a jump in the schedule until after exams. On January 31st., "Ted" Mercer, the Pennsylvania University leader and athlete will pay the College a visit. Mr. Mercer talks on subjects that will appeal to a college man and speaks in a college man's way. The evening that he is here there will be a Y. M. C. A. dinner in Commons, and Mr. Mercer will be the principal speaker. This should be one of the best features of the course. February 7th., the fellows will be privileged to listen to Thomas Gore, the famous blind Senator from Oklahoma. His subject will deal with some modern political topic.

Walter Rauschenbusch

Three other men who will without doubt speak here, but with whom no final arrangements have as yet been made are Mr. Herbert P. Lansdale, Dr. Thwing, and the Rev. Walter Rauschenbush. The former will speak in December, while the two latter will be here in the early part of February. Mr. Lansdale is the general secretary of the Rochester Y. M. C. A. Dr. Thwing, the president of Another Union game has gone down into the pages of history. The decision is irrevocable. Hamilton lost fairly and squarely, the score being 26 to 7, and there is no weeping and gnashing of teeth on College Hill. The Buff and Blue faced the best team Union will probably ever turn out. It made a clean sweep of every game on Union's schedule, a record never before equalled. Pitted against such overwhelming odds Hamilton was powerless for three and three quarters of the game, finding her greatest play, the open forward pass formation, demolished, her line bucks futile, and her trick plays solved before the ball was set in motion. For a small fraction of the game Hamilton found her feet, completed a forward pass of 25 yards and carried the ball over on the next smashing charge.

Without this score Hamilton would have come back from Union disgraced, and the team branded as quitters. That there should have been more touchdowns for the Buff and Blue, evidently should be admitted. Only the coach knows whether the team fought to the best of its ability, and as a Hamilton team should fight in the greatest game of the season. Hamilton had four good chances to score, one of which she took. At the other crises Union proved impregnable. And so the game was lost.

Union played a magnificent game, featuring in the very forward passes that were expected to win for Hamilton. Beaver and Starbuck repeatedly completed forward passes averaging 35 yards. On line bucking, Anderson and Girling were able to punch thru for steady gains.

Last Game for LaForce.

Captain LaForce playing his last game for Hamilton fought to win, and the defeat was not due to any fault of his. His team was outplayed from the start by the greatest team Union ever produced. Schwartz starred in a way that warmed the hearts of the Hamilton spectators. He tackled well, and used his head, mixing in besides some very gritty aggressive work. Pope at end had to work against Union's magnificent interference, but kept down the gains well on his side of the line.

Every College student saw the game, leaving Utica at 12.27 for Schenectady. The band went along and made music all the way and day, too. The cheering was fine and had the Hamilton ring. But the team out on the field could not hear it because it was fighting in the grimmest losing game that Hamilton has ever suffered from Union. Another year is coming.

The Game.

The Hamilton team came on the field at exactly 2.30, and the Garnet followed a minute later. Jackson kicked off for Union to Griffith on Hamilton's 15-yard line, who returned 15 yards. LaForce went thru center for 5 yards. Schwartz hit the line for 8 yards and first down. Bristol tried a quarterback run but was unable to gain. Schwartz was thrown for a yard loss on a wide end run. LaForce got off a beautiful punt on the next play, Beaver receiving on Union's 10-yard line. Rosencranz punted for Union on the first play to their 40-yard line, where the ball was Hamilton's. LaForce circled right end for a yard, and then tried a forward pass, which was intercepted by Gardner on Union's 40-yard line. Anderson went thru the line for 9 yards, but fumbled on the next play, Woolnough recovering. LaForce bucked center for 8 yards, then circled right end for 3 yards and first down. Schwartz smashed thru right tackle for 5 yards, but Pope fumbled on the next play, Girling recovering. Rosencranz made a yard thru center. Then Mudge fumbled, and Hamilton took the ball on Union's 15-yard line. LaForce made 3 yards thru the line, and added 4 more thru right tackle. Schwartz fumbled and recovered, making 3 yards and first down. With 5 yards to go for a touchdown, a pass from LaForce over the line failed. LaForce bucked the line for no gain. On a trick play, Starbuck profited by the experience of the Union scouts at the Hamilton-St. Lawrence game, and captured the ball. Girling punted out of danger to mid-field, where

"BUG" RAISES ROOF AT COLLEGE MEETING

Prophecies Victory Over Union at Big Rally Last Friday Night in Chapel.

DR. WOOD ALSO SPEAKS.

Recalls Game with Colgate 9 Years Ago, When Buff and Blue Suffered Glorious Defeat, 17-15.

Hamilton's gridiron representatives were given their final inspiration Friday evening, when the entire student body assembled in the Chapel, preceded by the College Band, to the tune of "Our Director."

After the formal opening of the meeting, by Dr. Wood, the Association of Undergraduate Activities moved that the Committee on Undergraduate Activities of the Trustees be petitioned for permission to hold College Dinners or Smokers in Commons Hall. The motion was carried unanimously, whereupon "We Come to Hang Our Banners" was next in order. The main speaker of the evening was introduced with a yell for "Bugs" Thompson, who for six years past has sacrificed his time and business in order to come back on the Hill to help the team prepare for Union.

"Fellows," he said, "I thank you for sending for me year after year, and for the pleasure of seeing a good many teams go down to Union I realize that we have Union's goat. But we also have a fine team, and a coach who has done a great work, and it is to him that we will be indebted if Union is beaten. But we have to have more than this. We have to have the "punch," and must have it tomorrow. We are better off than we were last year. We have the weight, power and a student body which knows its duty." "Bugs" next told how other Hamilton teams inferior to the present one, had gone down to Schenectady and to triumph

Union Not Superior.

Captain LaForce briefly gave his opinion of the chances of the big game, voicing the judgments of both Coaches. He said in part: "Union, as we know, does not put up the fight against us which she does against other teams such as R. P. I. Her team comes out on the field half-beaten. With this fact generally accepted, the two teams are about even, and you will find it worth while to go down to Union tomorrow." After a good stiff vell for "Fee," the Band interrupted the proceedings with an aria, following which repeated calls for "Baldy" brought the occupant of the History Chair to his feet.

"Baldy" Twice.

"I thought I'd made my speech at the opening," said he, "but you don't seem to know a speech when you hear it." Dr. Wood brought out more strongly that this was not the first time when Hamilton was up against odds, and called to mind the famous fight which the team of '05 had with Colgate at Hamilton. He continued: "I believe in the Hamilton spirit, the spirit of clean victory. We can win if every man plays all that's in

FRANK LEA SHORT WILL COACH AGAIN THIS YEAR

Charlatan Management Announces That Services of Last Years Drillmaster are secured.

Frank Lea Short, coach of the Charlatans for the last two years, has been re-engaged by Manager Ogilvie to supervise this year's production, according to an announcement made last week. Mr. Short is an experienced coach, long with the Ben Greet Company, and has had charge of many college theatrical organizations. Earlier in the season Ogilvie was unable to sign up Short, and so tried to engage some other man. Fortunately, however, Short has agreed to come, and will be on the Hill three times: immediately before Thanksgiving, shortly before the Christmas holidays, and again just before the Prom. production.

Wants New York Trip

In line with the increased activity of the Charlatans this year, Manager Ogilvie is planning to arrange a longer trip, and will ask the faculty for permission to play in New York. Permission has already been given for a trip similar to that of last year, including a Prom Performance in Utica and two other performances, probably in Oneonta and Albany, as last year. The Charlatan management feels that, as long as Albany is on the it inerary, New York could be added without materially increasing the expense, and at the same time the College would be benefitting by the extra advertising.

Rehearsals will be held regularly from now on, at 7:30 in the evening on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

PORTRAIT OF GOETHE.

The portrait of Goethe that hangs in the German room was presented at the opening of the term by Mrs. Treiss, wife of Professor Treiss, salutatorian of the class of '01. Mrs. Treiss made the copy from the painting bv Steiler.

SHOULD THE U.S. NAVY BE INCREASED?

Hamilton, Wesleyan and Bowdoin Will Debate This Question This Year. Class Teams Chosen

Word was received late last week by Prof. Lewis that the question for the intercollegiate debate between Bowdoin, Wesleyan, and Hamilton had been decided upon bv the Executive Committee of the three colleges. The subject is one of those proposed by Wesleyan and concerns the present naval policy of the United States. Prof. Lewis has not yet received the full wording of the proposition, but it is proboble that it will be worded as follows: Resolved, that United States should increase her navy.

Tryouts for the team will be held some time soon after the Christmas recess and will be open to all the classes. Owing to a clash in the calendars of the colleges involved the exact date of the debate has not yet been decided upon but the last week in March has been suggested as a likely time.

The tryouts for the interclass debate teams held last Monday evening resulted in the choice of the following men: Seniors, Erhardt, Goodenough, and Lee. Juniors, Groves, Jones, and McLouth, with Davis as alternate. The Senior alternate will be picked by the team. The debate will be held on Friday evening, Dec. 18, and the question will be the same as the Intercollegiate Debate.

—Dr. Laidler, who spoke at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday, has been chosen as coach by the Colgate Debating Team.

—A volume of the collected verse of Clinton Scollard, '81, containing several new poems, has been published by Houghton, Mifflin and Co. The book is very neatly bound and sells for $1.25 net.

—A new book entitled "The Clarion" by Samuel Hopkins Adams, '91, was recently published by the Houghton Mifflin Co. The book is a compelling story of an editor's battle for ideals.

—Morris, '03, for the past five years principal of the Oneonta High School, has accepted a position as principal of the high school at Danbury, Conn.

The Game.

There are to be no excuses; there should be no excuses. Hamilton was outplayed by Union. She was outplayed decisively, and Union won on merit. However, the Buff and Blue team did not "lie down" for a minute and if there be any truth in the contention that victory lies not always in the score, then we need not be discouraged. There is no cause to mope over the football season just past, especially when the material at hand last September is considered. From a squad of inexperienced men, demoralized over the loss of such men as Jessup, Ogden, Eddy and Robinson of last year's team. came a fighting machine that no Hamilton man felt ashamed to support on Alexander Field Saturday. In some way the development of the team this year shines as an example of what Hamilton spirit can do in the face of odds. The team did not give up after a dubious victory over St. Stephens; did not whimper when crushed by Syracuse; only gritted its teeth a bit harder when overwhelmed by the lost tribes from New York; and came up grimly smiling from a defeat at the hands of R. P. I. Not until the Hobart game did the College reap a reward for the team's doggedness. From that time the eleven never took a slump, but fought in practice and in game until the whistle blew Saturday on a Garnet victory. This spirit, we say, reflects the true Hamilton, and we are ready to look the season's record squarely in the face, and shout aloud our belief that the year has been a profitable one, as far as football has been concerned.

And there is another year coming. We make no empty prognostications, but state it as our absolute belief that with Reynolds here again next year Hamilton will have a team that will rank equally with the elevens that Union and New York University have produced this year. Union thinks that the jinx which has always pursued her in regard to the Hamilton game has been dispersed. Next year it will be strengthened. No matter how good Union happens to be next year, Hamilton is to be better.

"Pete" Reynolds.

A Hobart undergraduate who had been for three years familiar with "Pete" Reynolds and his methods of coaching was heard to remark when the Hamilton eleven worked a trick play against the Genevan eleven on October 24th: "There! I knew Pete would uncover something like that."

"Pete" Reynolds "uncovered" a great deal here at Hamilton this fall. But the thing that he showed most clearly was his own football insight. Reynolds easily earned the distinction of being the best coach Hamilton has ever had. He is a gentleman and a leader as well as a coach —a combination rarely found. He makes himself popular with men without lessening the dignity of his post; he inspires men to their best without knocking; and above all, he knows football.

Reynolds' methods in developing the team caused adverse comment early in the season. For the first three games, the team was not taught a play except straight line-plunging and end runs. Up until the R. P. I. game Reynolds came in for his share of the blame for not giving the team something besides football fundamentals. But he kept his own counsel, and kept on with the elementary football. When the team was sufficiently sure of itself, he began to open the game with passes and trick plays. When "Bug" Thompson came back to help coach the team for the final struggle, he gave his opinion that he had never in recent years seen a Hamilton team that did less fumbling or played a harder game than the eleven that Reynolds had built.

Reynolds graduates from the 1914 football season at Hamilton with a cum laude degree. He belongs near the top in the football "Who's Who in America." Life recommends to Manager Nichols that he make it his first aim to re-engage Reynolds for another season.

WE WANT "PETE" REYNOLDS!

Cornelius DeRegt.

Last Saturday Cornelius DeRegt's resignation from the position of Superintendent of Buildings took effect; and he who has served the College more years than any of the Faculty save one now leaves active service to remain in memory a true friend, obliging and efficient.

For ten College generations, Mr. DeRegt has had the management of all the College buildings, has done nearly all the buying for the College, and has handled between four and five hundred thousand dollars in the role of paymaster. Nor has he been occupied with routine duties alone. He was in charge of the construction of Carnegie and South, all the recitation halls, the chemical laboratory and Commons, the remodeling of the Chapel, the Gymnasium, and North. It is he who has only now completed the superintendence of the building of the new library. Every building is a testimony to his ability and faithfulness. He does not lack monuments.

And now that he has resigned we can do no less than in the name of the College heap congratulations upon Mr. DeRegt for having ever proved true to duty. He calls us back to those rough and hardy days of old Samuel Brown, when it was no rare happening of a morning to find a cow marooned on the Chapel stage. Thru these forty years Cornelius DeRegt has proved a friend to the student, until now not an alumnus nor undergraduate but remembers some service done him by "Andy." He has taken a constant and increasing share in the transformation of the College, until now there is not a building but bears his handiwork. And while regretting his passing, we rejoice that he will not move from the village, but will still move among us; and we hail him with, "Well Done."

GRADUATION WILL TAKE THREE REGULARS

LaForce, Brockway and Keddy of First Team, Little and Ingersoll of Scrubs, Will Be Missed.

Last Saturday five men played their last game for the Buff and Blue. Three of these men were regular varsity players and their loss will be keenly felt next season. Captain LaForce passes to the "has been" class after four years of service. Until this year he played tackle and was a tower of strength in that position. This fall he was shifted to the backfield and soon demonstrated his fitness for his new place. He has been Hamilton's best line bucker and has few equals at forward passing and punting. This year was Brockway's first on the varsity altho he has been a member of the squad for the past three seasons. He overcame his lack of experience early in the season and has been playing a steady, consistent game. He has shown himself a good tackler and very powerful on the defensive. Keddy has played a good game in the back-field and by his spirit has put much "pep" into the team. Altho Ingersoll and Little have not been first string players they have been in several games and have demonstrated to the full their ability and fighting spirit.

The prospects for a good team next year are excellent. Out of the material now at hand and that which a large entering class will bring the coach should be able to pick a team that will give Hamilton's opponents a good fight. Bristol, Paige and Schwartz will be more experienced and will form a strong back-field. The development of Jones and Lyon promises much and they can be counted upon to do good work as backs.

The line will be practically intact and should do even better work than it has this year. Pope will be invincible at end. Woolnough, Griffith, Gow, Emeny and Dayton should improve steadily. Other possibilities for the line are Insley, Otto and MacKie. The prospective team is both fast and heavy and with good coaching should develop into a powerful machine.

COLLEGE PRESIDENTS INSPECT NEW LIBRARY

Schurman of Cornell and Richmond of Union Visit Hill As Guests of Thomas R. Proctor.

That Hamilton's new Library has already attracted interest in other quarters is attested by the fact that two college presidents made a tour of inspection thru it last Friday. President Jacob Gould Schurman of Cornell, and President Charles A. Richmond of Union, who were temporarily the guests of Mr. Thomas R. Proctor of Utica, made a brief visit to the Hill, and were shown thru the new building by Dr. Stryker, both expressing their admiration of its structure and interior arrangements.

Before leaving President Richmond remarked to a Life reporter: "We will be glad to see you Hamiltonians in Schenectady tomorrow. We want to beat you, but if Union has got to be beaten, we would rather have it done by Hamilton than by anyone else."

Spice of Life

George Potter, when asked to buy a College Calendar, demurred on the grounds that he might not live the year out to use it all up. Quite like George, when one thinks of it.

A COMMUNICATION.

Editor Life:

Anent Senator Root's article on Hamilton, perhaps it is my duty to make public the following facts.

I have ninety-six titles on Alexander Hamilton, among which may be mentioned an a. l. s. under date, December 21, 1791, but which does not refer to Kirkland, and an a. n. s. in third person of Mrs. Hamilton in which reference is made to Mrs. Washington. I have a law brief of three pages entirely in the hand of Hamilton.

I "took advantage" of the sale in Boston at which I secured several items, one of which is a facsimile of Hamilton's draft of the Constitution, beautifully bound in mottled calf.

I might say, modestly, that I have made this collection for the College, and that in due time it will go to the new library.

Frederick W. Putnam.

HARRY LAIDLER GIVES ADDRESS ON SOCIALISM

Secretary of Intercollegiate Socialist Union Talks At Y. M. C. A. last Wednesday.

Before one of the largest audiences which has assembled in Silliman Hall this year, Dr. Harry W. Laidler, organizing secretary of the Intercollegiate Socialist Union, spoke on the subject, "Socialism and Christianity" last Wednesday evening. Dr. Laidler, who is a graduate of Wesleyan, and who received his Ph. D. at Columbia was introduced by Professor Clark of the Department of Economics as his classmate.

In explaining his subject, Dr. Laidler stated the two contributions of Christianity to the social question, that is the emphasis laid on the brotherhood of man and on the importance of the individual soul. He went on to show that the Socialist idea of public ownership of industries is not a plan to establish a communistic state, but to use the machinery of the existing state for the public benefit.

At the present time most of the great fortunes are gained by monopoly of some necessity of life, whereas under a Socialistic regime pre-emience would depend entirely on ability. Socialism would also prevent the present evil of intellectual stunting by sweat-shops and low wages. it would also put an end to the present economic struggle between capital and labor.

In conclusion Dr. Laidler dwelt on the fact that the Socialist does not pretend that Socialism will bring the milennium, but that he does hold that it will do away with great evils of the present without originating new ones.

FRESHMEN CELEBRATE A CLEAN GET AWAY

1918 Negotiates Spirited Banquet When Sophs Are Unwary. ''Trot'' Chase Present.

Leaving Schenectady in a body on the 6.27 Saturday evening, and eluding the unwatchful Sophs, the Freshmen returned to the Hotel Utica, where they finished up their celebration by holding the annual class banquet without the necessity of making a get-away from the Hill. The wily Frosh who conceived the idea of taking advantage of the Union game hit the nail on the head, for the class of 1917 was conspicuously absent from a part in the proceedings.

Their company was not by any means missed, as 54 of the 58 members of the Freshman class sat down to the feed at 9.30. In addition they hailed in all other Hamilton men in sight. Even ''Trot'' Chase fell a victim, altho he had to send the kiddies home early in order to stay himself.

''Trot'' Speaks.

After the hungry hordes had sufficiently regaled themselves with the menu, Toastmaster Harold C. Sherman, class president, introduced ''Trot'' as the first speaker. "Trot'' patted the Frosh on the back in the approved manner and then gave them some good sound advice on getting together and going out for all the College activities early and with a vim.

He sat down amid a roar of applause, and McNair of the Senior class was called. Then Booth Kennedy complimented everybody generally for the success of all their schemes for the banquet. He then issued a call for general enlistment on the Freshman football squad, which it goes without saying had a hearty response.

"Kewpie'' Hill, class vice-president, and one of the Freshmen from the Varsity squad who will make the nucleus of the Frosh team this week, gave a little prognostication of his own in regard to that underclassman game, which seems to be the favorite and consuming topic at present with both classes.

A Word From Jim.

Jim Thompson rose to the occasion of his second Freshman banquet, and did some real serious speech-making. In the course of it he denied that he was ex-'17 or even 17½, but said that he was at present a loyal full-fledged member of 1918. Above all he urged his classmates to be not only good '18 men, but first and foremost to be good Hamilton men.

The rest of the list of speakers included Fursman, Knowles, Griffith, MacKie, Beach, Grant, Kelly, Timmers, Peck, Schwartz and Handanian. ''Fish'' Gilbert, chairman of the Banquet Committee, closed the program.

The class adjourned with ''Carissima,'' and the assembled multitude rushed for the last car to Clinton. What they found there when they arrived on the Hill modesty forbids our repeating, but we note that the Sophs were not at home to callers for some time afterwards.

The committee which ''pulled off'' the banquet consisted of ''Fish'' Gilbert, chairman; Knowles, Fursman, Sherman, Kennedy, MacKie, Grant, and Griffith.

On Nov. 20, Psi U will meet Alpha Delta Chi and E. L. S. will meet D. K. E. for the first basketball games of the season. On Nov. 23, Sigma Phi meets Delta U and Chi Psi meets Theta Delta Chi.

NICHOLS IS ATTEMPTING TO RE-ENGAGE REYNOLDS

Football Manager Will Make Every Effort to Hire ''Pete'' for Another Season.

The football management is making every endeavor to secure again for next season the services of Coach Reynolds, whose work this year has done so much to develop an inexperienced team. ''Pete'' does not feel willing to make any definite agreement so early, but it is hoped that he will be signed up in a few weeks. Reynolds is quoted as remarking last week that he intends to keep up his connection with football and coaching until he has to follow a team around the field on a motorcycle.

Laidler Organizes Socialist Club

G. W. Browning is no longer a lone prophet. At last Hamilton has a real live Socialist organization, whose members already number a full dozen. Following his address on ''Socialism and Christianity'' given last Wednesday, Dr. Harry W. Laidler, organizing secretary of the Intercollgiate Socialist Union, went to work to arouse interest in Socialism among the college men. On Thursday afternoon a group of embryo Marxes met him in Silliman Hall, and plans for a campaign were drawn up. Jones, '16, was elected temporary chairman of the organization, and a membership committee consisting of Keddy and Clarke, '15, and Kimball, '16, was appointed to spread the good word and increase the enrollment.

There will be several lectures on subjects connected with the question of Socialism at some time during the coming winter, and it is possible that Gustave Stroebal of Syracuse may be one of the lecturers engaged. The meetings of the Club will be held every two weeks, on alternate Friday evenings, German Club meeting on the intervening Fridays. The course of study will be designed to interest not only real Socialists, but those who are only mildly interested in the subject, and even those who are opposed to Socialism. Dr. Laidler has promised to furnish the members of the Club with Socialist literature, and there is every indication that Socialistic opinion will soon be rife on the Hill. The present members of the little band which has gathered around the red flag are Hudson, Keddy, Kimball, Clarke and McNair, '15, Banks, Baldwin, Kimball, Pope and Jones, '16 and T. Orr, '17.

him, and I feel that this is going to be.''

The regular program of the evening over, some of the ''infinite pep'' was let loose in the form of a band parade around the campus, for the first time on an eve of the Union game. ''Get Union,'' was the slogan. The hornblowers led the crowd over to Commons, where yells were divulged, and the finale sung—Carissima.

SERVANT OF FORTY YEARS RESIGNS SATURDAY

Cornelius DeRegt, Long a Faithful Warden of College Buildings, Retires on Pension.

WANTS TO SEE COLLEGE GROW

Hopes to Live to See 300 Men Fill Buildings Whose Construction He Supervised.

Saturday noon the College officially lost the services of its oldest employee. No one was aware that anything unusual was happening in the hustle and bustle of getting off to Union, but as a matter of fact, the resignation of Cornelius DeRegt, for forty years Superintendent of the college buildings, went into effect at that time. Yesterday Mr. Coughlin, the newly appointed bursar and custodian of the buildings, officially became the Superintendent of Buildings. He has his office in North.

Cornelius DeRegt.

For the present ''Connie'' will remain on the Hill, pending the completion of his new house on Dwight Avenue, in order that he may be enabled to show the incoming superintendent the ropes. This is a more complicated task than most of the students realize. More than one extra hand will have to be hired to perform the separate duties formerly performed by Mr. DeRegt, not least among which is that of a skilled mechanic. It is for this reason mainly that Mr. Coughlin has withdrawn from active work in a Utica Bank, and will devote his entire time to the fulfilment of his new position.

The college is fortunate because of the proximity of Mr. DeRegt's abode-to-be, which the owner hopes will be completed sometime during the course of the winter, most likely in February. He has selected for the site the situation of the old Miss Jane Barker's School for Girls, which flourished along with the three or four other seminaries of Clinton back in the seventies. At the time when the Barker building burnt, it was being used as a conservatory of music by a Miss Sykes, and since then remained unused until its recent purchase by DeRegt.

Thus Mr. DeRegt will be more or less associated with the college itself in the future. It has always been the wish of the outgoing officer to see an increase in the number of students at Hamilton, and he says that he still hopes to see the time when the undergraduates will number at least three hundred. So, the formal loss of the oldest college officer does not mean a formal goodbye, but merely the good wishes for many pleasant days to come for Mr. Cornelius De Regt.

UNDERCLASSMEN WILL CLASH ON SATURDAY

Odds Slightly in Favor of Sophomores in Annual Football Game This Week.

Saturday afternoon the two under classes meet for the annual Sophomore-Freshman football game on Steuben Field. At 3.30 the teams will be on the field and ready for the fray. Varsity material will take part in the game, and so a first-class contest is expected. Both classes have several varsity and scrub men. Among the Sophomores in the first team's line-up are Dayton and Woolnough, tackles; Emeny, guard; Jones and Lyon, halfbacks; and Bristol, quarterback. The Freshmen boast Schwartz, halfback; Hill and Kelly, sub-guards; MacKie, sub-center; Gilbert, sub-tackle; and Thompson and Otto, sub-ends. Dayton and Schwartz are the two captains. Advance dope cannot determine which class will be the winner, and a close game is sure to be staged. The odds at the beginning of the game seem to be very slightly in favor of the Sophomores.

After the game it is expected that the usual row will take place, when the victorious class attempts to march around the track.

The probable line-ups for the two teams are as follows:

1917: Fullback, Dayton: halfbacks, Jones and Lyon; quarterback, Bristol; center, Lewis; guards, Brockway and Martindale; tackles, Emeny and Woolnough; ends, Behan, Fraser and Whitcambe.

Other Sophomores who will probably be used are Donohue, Donoghue, and Pohl.

1918: Fullback, Hill; halfbacks, Schwartz and Knowles; quarterback, Ludlow; center, MacKie; guards, Kelly, Briggs, VanAuken and Schrader; tackles, Gilbert and Beach; ends, Thompson and Otto.

LIT. BOARD MEETS.

A meeting of the "Lit'' board was held last Wednesday to discuss the November issue.
